Yay! You did it! You persevered! All of you are already winners, just by being on stage!
As a welcome back to Rhythm Dance, each dancer receives a free program, (1 per dancer) and Rhythm Dance medal & lanyard!
Please see Zoe at the Rhythm table in the lobby to sign for your program and medal. Programs are not being sold this year.

Please show your respect for others by wearing a mask while inside the building.

We are looking forward to hearing from these experienced dance professionals:

Stacey Schnarr is no stranger to the world of competitive dance. She trained at a prestigious studio in Toronto and competed across Canada and the US in several dance forms over 12 years. Stacey has completed her R.A.D Ballet Exams up to the advanced level, achieving commended, and has also earned her B.A.T.D teaching certification in both jazz and tap. For more than 25 years, Stacey has been sharing her love of dance with competitive students at several studios across Ontario. Stacey teaches competitive dance and is a member of the Ontario College of Teachers. She is employed as a secondary school business and dance teacher. Over the past several years, Stacey has spent time choreographing various musical productions for local theatre groups and teaching workshops at dance studios throughout the province. Stacey has judged numerous dance competitions and loves sharing her passion for dance with each performer she encounters. Stacey continues her own training as a teacher and choreographer by attending industry workshops and teacher seminars. Stacey is extremely conscientious and has a lot of knowledge to share. We at Rhythm Dance, are glad to have her back judging with us again!

Joe Perez hales from Chicago, Illinois, and began his professional dance career with the Empire State Ballet Co., (NY). Joseph's dance career has taken him across the United States, as well as performing internationally with various companies, including Disney (Tokyo Disneyland and DisneySea), and in the Canadian productions of "West Side Story" (Stratford Festival), "Don Quixotte", "Nixon in China" (COC), "Dance Legends", "Sweet Charity" and "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" (Drayton Festival); "Evita" (Neptune Theatre), and "Rocky Horror Show" (Stage West Mississauga). Some film/television credits include "Total Recall" (Assistant Choreographer), "Handmaid's Tale", "Titans", "Pompeii", "The Strain", "The Next Step", "Bomb Girls", "Hellcats", and commercials for WalMart/Coca-Cola (Earn It), Staples (Back to School) and Canon. Throughout his professional dance career, Joe has taught master classes in Hip-Hop, Jazz, Ballet and Acro across the United States and Canada. His choreography has most recently won top awards both nationally and internationally, most notably with World Performer's Canada, where his senior jazz routine took Gold in Portugal at the Dance World Cup (Europe) 2019, and again in England in 2021. His winning routines were also performed live at the Miss Universe Canada 2019, and the upcoming 2022 show! Joe continues to be a sought-after adjudicator for many dance competitions in Ontario. We welcome you to our panel this weekend, Joe!

Vanessa Zullo is an accomplished dancer & teacher & choreographer & and adjudicator & with over 20 years of training in ballet & jazz & tap & lyrical & modern & hip hop & acrobatics & and ballroom styles. She is the former artistic director of her own studio & Vanessa Zullo's School of Dance & Inc. & which operated successfully in Bolton for 13 years. A graduate of the Mayfield Regional Arts program & she also majored in Dance and Concurrent Education at York University on a scholarship. Vanessa has previously directed numerous dance programs for the Dufferin & Peel & York & Simcoe & and Toronto Boards of Education.

Over the course of her 25-year teaching career & Vanessa and her students have won numerous awards and scholarships at both the regional and national levels. Several students have won major titles in the dance world. Past students have also danced with the Toronto Raptors Junior Dance Pak & Toronto Blue Jays Dancers & and have been featured in several commercials & movies & and TV shows & including SYTYCD and Family Channels' The Next Step. Miss Zullo has students who were privileged enough to be accepted to the Quinte and National Ballet Schools. Vanessa is tremendously proud that several of her former students are presently embarking on successful teaching careers themselves.

Vanessa believes strongly in continuous learning and makes attending teachers' workshops and classes a priority to keep up with the latest teaching techniques and choreographic styles. Miss Zullo's goal is to provide her students with a solid foundation in dance in a safe & caring & and positive learning environment. Both her recreational and competitive classes are fun and challenging for students of any age. She teachers all of her classes with boundless energy & enthusiasm & mixed with a wacky sense of humour.

Vanessa has been providing dancers with helpful and encouraging feedback motivating them to develop their passion and success as dancers as a professional adjudicator for over 10 years across Canada. She is a member of the Professional Adjudicators Alliance.

Currently & Miss Zullo feels privileged to be inspiring and sharing her love and knowledge of dance to children at several schools in the GTA & and in her own high school classroom in the Dufferin-Peel Catholic District School Board.

Welcome back to our judging panel & Vanessa!

Alice Burke ...specials judge Friday and Sunday

Alice Burke is a stalwart of the Theatre industry! A Professional dancer and actress for 40 years, plus accomplished educator and choreographer for 30 years. Alice is called upon for her vast expertise, warm wit and innovative outlook. Since settling in Niagara, Alice is excited to be part of the movement for change in the dance industry. “Dance is an Art form that embraces every kind of human in the world, I long to see this reflected on stages everywhere!”

Alice's career began in England. Leo Kersley, Principal of Sadlers Wells Royal Ballet trained Alice professionally in Cecchetti and Bournonville technique upon which she was accepted into The Royal Ballet School as a Junior Associate. Alice Burke graduated from London Studio of Performing Arts where she was taught by greats such as Dame Beryl Grey and Dame Ninette De Valois. Alice went on to guest with ‘London City Ballet’ and The Scottish Ballet. Under the guidance of Bridget Espinosa, Alice blossomed into a Triple Threat.

Alice has since enjoyed a diverse and successful career as a professional dancer, singer, actress and choreographer performing on stage and screen all over the globe. Accolades are: Cassie – Chorus Line; Janet – Rocky Horror; Mungo Jerry – Cats; Donna Marie – Blood Brothers. Lead Adage - Dance Captain - Lead Production Singer for Carnival Cruise Line. Lead Dancer- Lead

Adage - Rehearsal Director for Bodywork Dance Co (Tours included Germany, The Netherlands, Thailand, Ireland and England). T.A - Pineapple Dance Studio London. Television credits include Front Row and Timmy Mallet (ITV England) as a Lead Dancer and Backing Singer for Nigel Planer and The Dooleys. Choreography Credits are: Narnia, Blood Brothers, Musical of Musicals the

Musical, YAGP, Pearl Gloves, St. Catharines Arts Awards, Chinese Cultural Centre and many winning competitive pieces. As a teacher, Alice has mentored students into hugely successful careers around the world. This includes providing excellent training, career guidance and stopping at nothing to ensure her students reap the benefits of her vast network, including the Royal Ballet, Danish Royal, Moulin Rouge, Swedish Ballet, Canadian National Ballet, Peggy Baker Dance Projects and more.

Rhythm Dance is my favourite Competition! I love being invited here as part of their esteemed panel, to help remind every dancer how special they are! Welcome back to Rhythm, Alice!
